FOREWORD

We note with keen satisfaction, the continued interest in the Dahlia. Each succeeding year the standard of perfection is increasing, and a dahlia must be really fine to warrant introduction. We have many fine seedlings, but are holding them back this year, in order to further check, and increase stock. Look next year for our Minature sensation. RIAL-SIDE BABE. Winner at New York 1938. We have not enough stock to release it this year. Our featured dahlias of last year fully lived up to our expectations, so we are again calling your attention to them. Don't forget that if a dahlia is named RIALSIDE it must have won major awards. IF IT'S TAGGED RIALSIDE IT'S A WINNER.

✓ Rialside King

Informal decorative. Picric yellow at base of petals, blending to jasper pink, deeper at end of petals. This giant fully lived up to its reputation in 1938. An Achievement Medal winner, and about the best in its class. Roots $5.00, Plants 3 for $5.00.

Monarch of the East

Dec. to informal dec. Gold with apricot and orange buff suffusion, slight coppery red on reverse. At Boston 1938, six giant blooms of this dahlia, won for us the HOUSE BEAUTIFUL FUTURITY MEDAL. Roots $7.50, Plants $2.50.

Burgundy

Informal Decorative. A giant bloom of great depth. Color, a rich burgundy red. Tall grower and the finest of its color. Rugged grower with tough leathery foliage. Roots $2.50, Plants $1.00.
